

I am opposed to this petition.

It does nothing other than create unnecessary paperwork and cost to the retailer, enforcement would be difficult at best and the information that would be provided has the greatest potential to be abused.